LOCAL COP
Caught Red Handed
Recently at the Small Schools Sports Day Senior Constable Fred Baguley aka Rosco P Coltrane was caught stealing donuts from Eungella State School. Luckily, the Donut Police were on hand to apprehend one of the offenders, but another offender, Enos was seen fleeing the scene.

The offender didn’t put up much of a fight so it was quite easy for the Donut police to entrap him. Sargent Fred Baguley will appear before the Eungella State School Donut Magistrates Court in December. Enos is still on the loose, she is armed with donuts and dangerous. If Baguley is tried and found guilty, he will have to perform community service at the Eungella State School for 12 months.

LOCAL STUDENT ART TO BE DISPLAYED AT EUNGELLA INFORMATION CENTRE

Eungella Students have completed an Art Project to be displayed at the Broken River Information Centre.

Artist in Residence, Jodie Maloney, co-ordinated the project, working alongside students to plan, design and paint the artwork.

The artwork represents students’ aspects of their school and community.

The school would like to thank members of E.C.D.A. for inviting students to create the artwork, as well as providing the materials to complete it.

Students hope that visitors enjoy the vibrant and creative art piece.

WELCOME TO SEMESTER TWO
The school year is quickly passing and already in our first two weeks, students have been involved in some fantastic activities, with many more to come throughout the term.

On the final day of Term 2, Yr 4 students Kalea and Kyle had some fun giving our library cupboards a face lift. The students sanded, then painted the junior fiction cupboards in bright colours which have enhanced the look of our library. Great job Kalea and Kyle!!!

Winter has arrived... and timely too with the Hubs’ Christmas in July - Family Dining evening last Friday Night. Joan and the kitchen crew doing an exceptional job as always, the mulled wine was a bit of a hit too!! The Chook raffles (sponsored by Eungella Realty) went off, with this month’s lucky winners, Bernadette from Explorers Haven and April Tippett. A great fundraising activity for the Hub

- Chook Raffle Tickets are on sale at Eungella General Store through the weeks leading up to the Dining Nights and then drawn every 3rd Friday night of the month.

The Community Art Project held in the school holidays was well attended and saw loads of transfers being produced to be then sent to the experts for transition onto the steel sculptures destined for the City Heart. More on this soon.

The Hub will be hosting and catering for a private function this weekend, hope the weather improves for the happy couple. Best wishes from all of us. If you can help out, phone Joan on 49584770.

King of the Mountain Race is on the very next day with an early start. Any takers!! Then,, Mountain Bike Marathon 1st and 2nd August including Eungella Markets. Stall holders always welcome, please email hub@eungella.com.au to book a stall.

See you round the mountain.

Word Power

Words belong to everybody!
They can’t be bought or sold, owned or disowned.
Once said they become part of somebody else’s life,
Someone else’s reality and understanding.

Words should be chosen carefully,
For the receiver does not have the opportunity not to hear them.
Speech is a powerful skill, use it wisely.
Sometimes the act of being silent can be more powerful than words.

Pausing initially can give you more time to choose your words effectively.
Take time before commitment in business
Or in any decision making in this quickening life.

In words we can produce war or peace.
Reflection beforehand always produces best results.
Most of all remember a smile can say a thousand words.
